ABOUT JUSTIN FLOM

Justin Flom was born into a family of magicians in Eden Prairie, Minnesota. He opened The Imaginary Theatre and Magic Parlor in Branson, Missouri at age 18. In 2011, he moved to Las Vegas, where he reinvented himself by transitioning to more organic magic using simple items like cards, Coke cans, Life Savers and dollar bills. SyFy Television Network filmed a new show in 2014, “Wizard Wars”, starring Justin along with Penn and Teller and several other magicians competing to create magic out of ordinary objects on the spot. Justin is the lead wizard on the series, as well as an associate producer of the show.

In 2016 alone Justin has appeared on the “Today Show”, the “Country Radio Seminar”, performed on the “Rachael Ray Show”, was a guest on “Late Night with Seth Meyers”, as well as the Cumulus Radio’s syndicated morning show “America’s Morning Show”. Justin, opened for Florida Georgia Line’s 60-date tour earlier this year. He has also appeared on the “Ellen DeGeneres Show” three times, “Late Late Show with Wayne Brady”, WWE Smackdown in 2015, and the ABC Special “CMA Country Christmas” in 2013. In addition, Justin has performed magic for the Seattle Seahawks, MetLife, Cox Media, and Benefit Cosmetics. Las Vegas Weekly named Justin “Best Up-And-Coming Entertainer” in their 2013 Weekly Awards. Justin, has also received accolades from about.com which listed him as one of their “Ten Magicians to Watch in 2015”. BuzzFeed, also named him one of their “15 Snapchat Enthusiasts That Will Inspire You Take Better Snaps”.
